

FISCAL NOTE

HB 2306 - SB 2258

March 28, 2007

SUMMARY OF BILL: Transfers the supervision responsibility of an offender who successfully completes a special alternative incarceration program or a technical violator program from the Division of Community Services in the Department of Correction to the Board of Probation and Parole (BOPP).

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures – Not Significant

Assumption:

- BOPP estimates the technical violators eligible for the program were under BOPP supervision prior to referral to the program and as a result this bill will have a not significant fiscal impact.
